THE WHITE BARN

A performing Arts Venue Set in Napa Valley Vineyards

Known as a unique gem of St. Helena, The White Barn is an 1872 Carriage House that was once part of U.S. Civil War General Erasmus Keyes' home and winery estate. Located at the end of Sulphur Springs Avenue in a bucolic vineyard setting, The White Barn was transformed into an intimate 70-seat performing arts venue without loss of its historic charm. The White Barn has nurtured local, San Francisco Bay area, West Coast, and international talents for 25 years under the guidance of Artistic Director Nancy Garden, and is staffed by volunteers.

All proceeds from White Barn events benefit local and international charitable organizations. Complimentary Napa Valley wines and desserts are served during performance intermissions.
